CUE AI Business Operating System
The Heart of Your Business

Find the money you're already earning but not collecting — from your own records, with evidence.

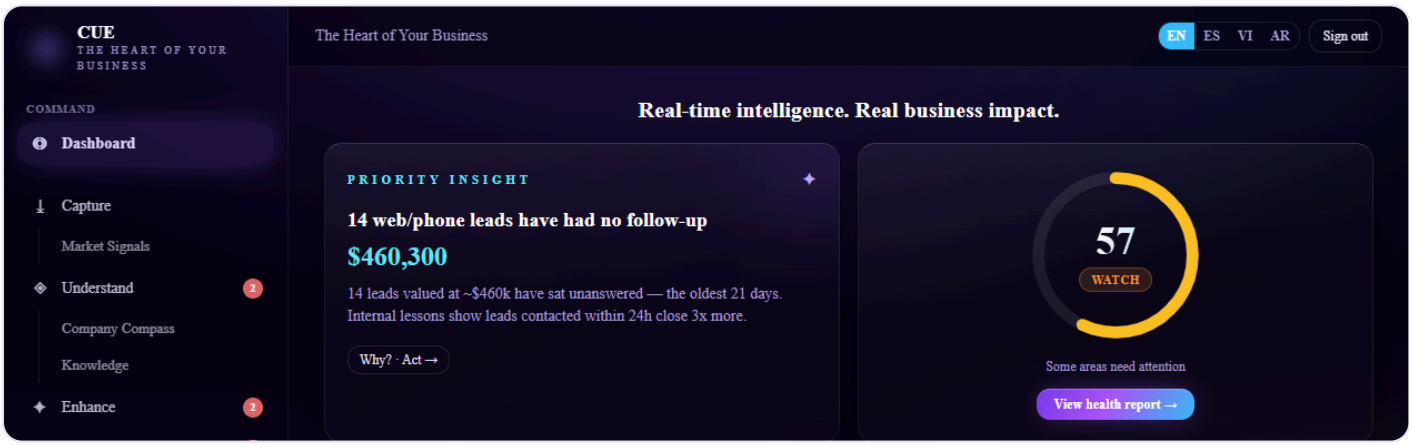

CUE reads your DMS, CRM, and accounting exports and shows exactly where revenue leaks: unbilled repair orders, unanswered leads, aging inventory. Every number traces to a real record. CUE prepares. You decide.

What CUE catches on a dealership floor

- Closed ROs, never billed. The tech finished the work; the invoice never went out. CUE flags every one against your own invoicing SOP — with the repair order attached.
- Leads that went cold silently. Unanswered internet leads buy from the next store within days. CUE shows who's waiting, how old, and what each is worth.
- Aging inventory past its reprice date. Your policy already allows price moves at day 30/45/60 — CUE finds the units where nobody pulled the trigger.
- Service-to-sales handoffs lost. Every service customer whose trade is a fit, tracked to the advisor.

Why not just our CRM or DMS's AI?

CRM / marketing suites (GoHighLevel, HubSpot): store leads and send campaigns. They don't interpret your records or find leaks.

Legacy DMS (CDK, DealerSocket): stores the data — charges per seat, no insight layer, no strategy loop.

CUE: reads what your DMS already stores, finds the money, prepares the action — and waits for your approval, with an audit trail. Keeps your current tools.

30-DAY PILOT · ONE STORE · READ-ONLY EXPORTS

Pay for proof: if CUE doesn't identify at least $10,000 in documented leakage from your records, the pilot costs nothing and you keep every finding. If it does, decide whether $299–799/mo is worth it. Every claim above traces to a verifiable record — that's the product.
